I missed you but I hated you too
In the end, I cried even in front of my mom
Making her bein pain too
That's being a bad daughter
Why did you come into my life
That was once good and make it bad?
I wanted to ask you
I wanted to hear your answer
But I finally realized
How you had to secretly hurt
Because of my resentful texts I'm worse, I'm worse
I'm worse than you
Now I finally know
How you were hurt even more
I knew that about you
But just because you left me
I hurt you more I thought I only gave you love and laughter
I don't want this kind of pain
So why did you give it to me and leave?
I told myself every day, you're a bad guy
When I asked you if you were gonna be ok without me
You shed a tear and I wanted to ask why
I wanted to say you didn't look like you wanted to leave
I asked you to hold me
Throwing a fit and crying
I wonder how you felt when you looked at me acting like that I'm worse, I'm worse
I'm worse than you
Now I finally know
How you were hurt even more
I knew that about you
But just because you left me
I hurt you more You said it was for my future
Now I understand
Times without you felt like hell
But I endured through them
So can't you say I did a good job
Can't you hug me?
And come back to me? I'm worse, I'm worse
I'm worse than you
Now I finally know
How you were hurt even more
I knew that about you
But just because you left me

I hurt you more
